

TAX CREDITS

Gain Control

Our transactional tax practice is not limited to businesses. Individuals buy and sell property unconnected with businesses and are required to pay tax on their recognized gains. Certain transactions involving non-business property, however, are eligible for non-recognition treatment, including like kind exchanges and condemnations. We have advised numerous property owners in negotiating the requirements for non-recognition treatment, or avoiding non-recognition treatment when the desired outcome is the recognition of a loss.

Why Barnes & Thornburg?

Finding new ways to help clients identify solutions and new business opportunities, across industries, is at our core. We are, at times, more than lawyers, we are advisers bringing new ideas to light. We understand what keeps you up at night and work collaboratively to find practical and creative solutions, at the heart of business.
