What Cases Have They Decided Or Will They Decide To Take During the 2016-2017 Term?

Doug Haloftis, Barnes & Thornburg

For multistate employers, what were the most impactful state employment laws enacted in 2016? What key issues did the U.S. Supreme Court and Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals address in 2016? What cases has it decided (or will it decide to take) during its 2016-2017 term? And, where do cases stand that have enjoined major Obama administration initiatives affecting wage and hour, overtime, and labor relation issues?

Top 10 Tips to Avoid Employment Discrimination Claims

Tina Syring, Barnes & Thornburg

Employment-related lawsuits are difficult to deal with. Emotions run high with personal issues often brought into play. Even when claims are meritless, defense costs can be substantial. The impact on morale and reputation can also be significant. This presentation will provide tips that may help reduce employment-related issues in your business and strengthen your defenses if an action is brought.
