Business seminar. Scott Godes, a partner with Barnes & Thornburg, will be speaking at the upcoming American Conference Institute's (ACI) 18th National Advanced Forum on Asbestos Claims & Litigation held January 15-16 in Philadelphia. Scott's session is Insurance Coverage Issues: Pursuing Claims Against Bankrupt, Dissolved, or Defunct Entities; Issues Involving Joint Insurers and Non-Settling Insurers; Trigger, Exhaustion and Allocation Nuances; Assignment of Policies and Proceeds; and Developments with Respect to CUMIS Counsel. The presentation will include:

- A review of the Continental Casualty (aka Keasbey) case that allowed plaintiffs to proceed against a company not in business anymore but still had an insurance policy in place
- Developments in the law regarding asbestos claimants' ability to proceed against defunct entities
- In-depth analysis of what happens to insurance policies still in place after a business is defunct, dissolved or bankrupt
- And much more
