Healthcare PartnerJuly 18, 2018 | Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS – Stacy L. Cook has rejoined Barnes & Thornburg LLP as a partner in the firm’s Healthcare Department and the Data Security and Privacy Practice Group after spending two years in-house with the Indiana State Medical Association.

Cook concentrates her practice on regulatory and transactional issues, including fraud and abuse laws, billing and reimbursement, HIPAA compliance, and related litigation matters involving a wide variety of healthcare providers.

“We are happy to have Stacy rejoin the firm to help provide clients with critical representation on healthcare matters that affect their businesses,” said Brian L. Burdick, managing partner of the Indianapolis office.

She has experience representing healthcare providers before state and federal healthcare regulatory agencies and also assists clients in responding to privacy and security breaches, government investigations and audits, as well as to repayment inquiries and internal and external audits.

Cook previously practiced at the firm from 2006 to 2016, when she left for a two-year stint as general counsel of the Indiana State Medical Association, Indiana’s largest professional association for physicians. Her legal career began at a litigation firm in Kansas City, where her practice focused primarily on product liability defense, including medical devices and pharmaceuticals.

Cook earned her LL.M. in health law from Loyola University Chicago School of Law in 2006. She earned her J.D. magna cum laude from Washburn University School of Law in 1993. During law school, she served as the editor-in-chief of the Washburn Law Journal. She received a B.A. from Kansas State University.

With more than 600 attorneys and other legal professionals, Barnes & Thornburg is one of the largest law firms in the country. The firm serves clients worldwide from 14 offices in Atlanta, California, Chicago, Delaware, Indiana, Michigan, Minneapolis, Ohio, Texas and Washington, D.C.
