Barnes & Thornburg LLP has added new attorneys to its Chicago and Indianapolis offices. The new attorneys are:

Chicago

R. Joseph Kave is an associate in the Chicago office and is a member of the Litigation Department. He has represented corporate clients across several industries, including automotive, pharmaceutical, and energy. Kave has also litigated complex matters involving various issues of law, including contract disputes, breach of fiduciary duty, civil RICO claims, mass tort and employment discrimination.

In 2010, Kave earned his J.D., summa cum laude, from the University of Illinois College of Law. He was an editor for the University of Illinois Law Review and a member of the Order of the Coif. In 2006, he earned his B.S., summa cum laude, from the New York Institute of Technology.

Julia L. Santullano is an associate in the Chicago office. As a member of the Private Client Services Practice Group, Santullano focuses her practice on estate planning for high net worth individuals and families, trust and estate administration, probate, guardianship, and probate litigation. Santullano has experience in crafting complex estate plans and settling large estates, and she has represented both individual and corporate fiduciaries. She frequently advises clients regarding the estate and income tax implications of planning for the disposition of substantial retirement assets while working to achieve clients' personal planning objectives.

In 2006, Santullano earned her J.D. from Northwestern University School of Law. In 2002, Santullano earned her B.A., magna cum laude, from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign.

Indianapolis
