

Delivering Successful Public Private Partnerships

DATE

June 12, 2014

LOCATION

A distinguished panel of public servants will discuss key aspects of their experience in delivering successful public private partnerships. The panel will be asked, from their perspective in the public sector, what the private sector can do to be more successful in securing these opportunities, what factors lead to failed P3s, and what should change in Indiana (if anything) to encourage additional successful P3s.

Featuring:

- Andy Cook, Mayor of the City of Westfield, Indiana
- Kendra York, Director of the Indiana Finance Authority
- Scott Fadness, Town Manager of Fishers, Indiana

Moderated by:

- Chris W. Cotterill, Partner, Faegre Baker Daniels LLP

Spotlight Presenter:

- Dcodia is a discreet, mobile solution designed to help students with dyslexia read without the assistance of a tutor, parent, or teacher.
