The summary of NLRB decisions for the week of April 24-28 is now available. Summarized Board Decisions *Diamond Trucking, Inc. (25-CA-144424; 365 NLRB No. 64) Peru, IN, April 25, 2017. The Board (Members Pearce and McFerran; Chairman Miscimarra, dissenting) granted the General Counsel's exceptions to the Administrative Law Judge's conclusion that the Union did not have an objective, factual basis for believing that an alter-ego relationship existed to establish the relevance of an information request. Because the Union had an objective, factual basis for such a belief, the information was relevant, and the Respondent's refusal to provide the requested information violated Section 8(a)(5) and (1). Chairman Miscimarra dissented and agreed with the judge that there was no objective, factual basis for believing that an alter-ego relationship existed and that the requested information was therefore not relevant. Charge filed by Teamsters Joint Council No. 69. Administrative Law Judge Susan A. Flynn issued her decision on November 24, 2015. Chairman Miscimarra and Members Pearce and McFerran participated.
