Scott Godes, partner and co-chair of the firm’s Data Security and Privacy Practice Group, was recently quoted in a Law360 article, “Privacy ‘Bill of Rights’ to Boost Demand for Breach Coverage.” The article highlights the recently introduced privacy bill of rights and changes to the regulatory environment that could change the cyberinsurance marketplace for policyholders. Scott is noted saying, “Cyberinsurance remains the Wild West of insurance. But with the changing regulatory environment, we’re starting to see changing prices and the market opening up and tightening up.” Read the full article here.
