

House Panel Report On NLRB's Pro-Union Bias Says What Employers Have Long Been Thinking...

December 21, 2012 | Labor Relations

Adam L.
Bartrom
Partner

The House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform – chaired by Rep. Darrell Issa, R-Calif. – released a staff report accusing this NLRB of the obvious...pro-union bias.

The report covered all of the greatest hits including the NLRB's case against Boeing, the Specialty Healthcare decision regarding "microunions," quickie election and posting rules, as well as the recess appointments. Amongst other adjectives, the report describes NLRB officials as "gleeful" following the pro-labor resolution of the Boeing matter.

While this report is not groundbreaking, we will watch closely to see if this report gains exposure in this news cycle.

The full report can be found here.

RELATED PRACTICE AREAS

Labor and Employment
Labor Relations