Barnes & Thornburg's Atlanta Office Named Among 'Best Places To Work' By Atlanta Business Chronicle

September 25, 2023 | Atlanta

ATLANTA – For the fourth consecutive year, the Atlanta Business Chronicle has named Barnes & Thornburg one of Atlanta's "Best Places to Work."

The annual ranking of 100 metro area companies highlights employers who maintain a thriving culture and go above and beyond to keep their workforce engaged.

With nearly 90 attorneys and business professionals in its Atlanta office, Barnes & Thornburg ranked eighth in the medium-sized employer category. This year's results highlight Barnes & Thornburg's employee satisfaction with several workplace factors that impact employee engagement, including recognition, value and inclusion.

"I am very proud that the firm has been named as one of the top places to work in Atlanta for the fourth year in a row," said John T.L. Koenig, managing partner of Barnes & Thornburg's Atlanta office. "Late last year, we moved into a new office space that promotes engagement among our attorneys, business professionals, clients and community partners – and reflects the diverse perspectives and communities that embody Atlanta. This recognition underscores the type of culture we strive to establish, and we are deeply committed to upholding it."

Every year, the Atlanta Business Chronicle and Quantum Workplace issue surveys to the employees of participating companies to gather data on overall employee satisfaction and engagement. The companies are then evaluated and ranked across four categories according to the number of Atlanta-based employees they have. Those categories include
