Matthew B. O'Hanlon Named Fellow Of American College Of Coverage Counsel

February 8, 2024 | Los Angeles

The American College of Coverage Counsel (ACCC) has named Matt O'Hanlon, a partner in Barnes & Thornburg's Los Angeles office, as a fellow.

Matt concentrates his practice on representing corporate policyholders in connection with insurance coverage and bad faith litigation against their insurers under numerous types of insurance policies, including commercial general liability, commercial property, D&O, E&O, media liability, cyber, event cancellation, among others. He has represented companies in the entertainment, real estate, financial services, aerospace, pharmaceutical, hotel and hospitality, cannabis, and apparel industries, among others.

The ACCC comprises over 400 preeminent lawyers involved in coverage and extra contractual matters, with fellows representing both policyholders and insurers and honorary members from academia.

With more than 800 attorneys and other legal professionals, Barnes & Thornburg is one of the largest law firms in the country. The firm serves clients worldwide from offices in Atlanta, Boston, California, Chicago, Delaware, Indiana, Michigan, Minneapolis, Nashville, New Jersey, New York, Ohio, Philadelphia, Raleigh, Salt Lake City, South Florida, Texas, and Washington, D.C.
