

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

FinTank's Blockchain Summit 2017

DATE

October 10, 2017

Barnes & Thornburg is pleased to sponsor and participate in FinTank's Blockchain Summit 2017, which will be Chicago's first day-long blockchain event.

The Summit will feature many thought leaders in the blockchain space, including Barnes & Thornburg partner Will Turner, who will discuss selling digital assets in the U.S. and balancing legal compliance with business operations.

Throughout the day, guests will enjoy panel discussions and networking opportunities. Agenda topics include using blockchain in real estate, fund reporting, adding new businesses to existing enterprises, education and regulation. The token market and investing and mining opportunities will also be considered. Input will be provided by industry leaders, federal and state government authorities, and technology innovators.

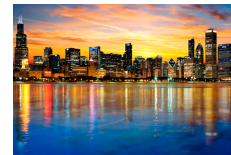

When: Tuesday, Oct. 10 at 7:30 a.m. - 5:30 p.m. (Central)

Location: Illinois Institute of Technology, 565 W. Adams Street, Chicago, Illinois
