Barnes & Thornburg Attorney Named Senior Fellow Of Litigation Counsel Of America

January 6, 2016 | Dallas | Minneapolis

Victor Vital of the Dallas office has been named Senior Fellow of the Litigation Counsel of America (LCA). The LCA is a trial lawyer honorary society composed of less than one-half of 1 percent of American lawyers. Fellowship in the LCA is highly selective and by invitation only.

As a litigator in the firm's White Collar and Investigations Practice Group, Vital's courtroom breadth includes trial matters involving major crimes, white collar criminal cases, high-stakes business and commercial disputes, and a wide variety of other complex or multiparty disputes in a variety of forums such as civil, probate and bankruptcy courts. Having tried more than 100 cases, he is experienced in representing an array of clients in high-stakes cases and matters.

Fellows are selected based upon excellence and accomplishment in litigation, both at the trial and appellate levels, and superior ethical reputation. Senior Fellow status in the society is reserved for advanced commitment to and support of the LCA, Diversity Law Institute and Trial Law Institute.

With more than 600 attorneys and other legal professionals, Barnes & Thornburg is one of the largest law firms in the country. The firm serves clients worldwide from 13 offices in Atlanta, Chicago, Dallas, Delaware, Indiana, Los Angeles, Michigan, Minneapolis, Ohio, and Washington, D.C.
