BARNES & THORNBURG LLP

WEBINARS | ON DEMAND

What's Going On? Lessons From Current COVID-19 Workplace Litigation Trends

DATE

March 10, 2021
2 p.m.-3 p.m. (Eastern)

SPEAKERS

Christina M. Janice
Partner

Mark Wallin
Partner

Watch on Demand

In the latest edition of this ongoing series, leaders from our nationwide Wage and Hour Practice Group will discuss observations and insights derived from trends in COVID-19 related workplace litigation and beyond.

The speakers will examine the lessons employers can learn from these cases. With an emphasis on practical guidance for employers, our team will address:

- An overview of COVID-19 litigation trends
- Updates on cases involving employee compensation, benefits and novel claims associated with the pandemic
- Updates on legislative and public health developments affecting compliance planning and risk mitigation
- Do's and don'ts: Lessons learned from COVID-19 related litigation and

RELATED PRACTICE AREAS

COVID-19 Resources
Employment Litigation
Labor and Employment
Wage and Hour

other developments

1.0 hour CLE credit pending and 1.0 hour of HRCI credit approved. This program is valid for 1.0 PDCs for the SHRM-CP® or SHRM-SCP®.

Questions? Email Courtney Brown or call 317-231-7312.