I AM...

- Married 41 years to Dan, who is a retired Naval Senior Chief Petty Officer. I am very proud of his military service.
- A native Chicagoan, though I lived in Virginia for 16 years during my husband's naval career
- An IT professional who has been in the field so long that I actually coded programs onto punch cards
- An avid reader, I especially enjoy classic mysteries and historical fiction
- An advocate for children's literacy
- A big fan of European Union and Australian League rugby
- Someone who enjoys road trip vacations and stopping at all the tourist traps – the cornier the better
- Obsessed with decorating for Christmas
- Pretty good at the firing range
- A reader of Skeptical Inquirer (my favorite magazine) – follow the science!
