Minneapolis Attorneys Step Up For Pro Bono Housing Court Cases

November 14, 2018 | Minneapolis

Barnes & Thornburg was recognized by Minneapolis Mayor Jacob Frey for its work with the Volunteer Lawyers Network (VLN) and the Minneapolis Housing Project as part of the new “More Representation Minneapolis” initiative. Barnes & Thornburg and other Minneapolis firms have committed to increase their pro bono services to combat the number of unrepresented litigants involved in eviction and landlord-tenant disputes in Hennepin County’s housing court.
