

Chandler Caswell offers clients her natural approachability and commitment in providing them counsel and representation in the areas of product liability and mass tort disputes, primarily involving pharmaceutical and medical devices.

Chandler assists with reviewing and analyzing product liability claims, medical records and related injury documentation. She brings to Barnes & Thornburg experience she gained working on workers' compensation matters in medical malpractice defense and personal injury law firms.

While in law school, she coached first-year law students on mock trial, moot court, and alternative dispute resolution teams.

In her free time, Chandler enjoys playing pickleball and riding her bike on the lakefront trail with her dog.
