

UCC LITIGATION

WHEN IT COUNTS

Barnes & Thornburg has substantial experience litigating the often complex issues that arise under the Uniform Commercial Code. The Firm has litigated scores of cases involving the sale of goods and breach of warranties, negotiable instruments and other banking system issues, and secured transactions.

The Firm has litigated scores of cases involving the sale of goods and breach of warranties, negotiable instruments and other banking system issues, and secured transactions. The Firm has tried or arbitrated multimillion-dollar UCC disputes in virtually every industry. Our lawyers have helped clients successfully obtain dismissal and summary judgment in UCC matters, and also are experienced litigators ready to try cases when the need arises. In addition, Barnes & Thornburg lawyer Ed Keirn is the author of a treatise on Revised Article 9 of the UCC.

Why Barnes & Thornburg?

Finding new ways to help clients identify solutions and new business opportunities, across industries, is at our core. We are, at times, more than lawyers, we are advisers bringing new ideas to light. We understand what keeps you up at night and work collaboratively to find practical and creative solutions, at the heart of business.
