

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

Non-Profits And Associations Forum: Insurance Essentials For Exempt Organizations - A Practical Guide For In-House Counsel

DATE

July 21, 2016

SPEAKERS

Scott N. Godes
Partner

This program will provide practical and actionable advice regarding insurance coverage for your association and non-profit organization. We will discuss what typically is included, what frequently is excluded, and what to ask for in the types of insurance policies below, focusing on issues specific to non-profits and associations. We'll also address how to ensure compliance with contractual insurance requirements, additional insured requirements, indemnification obligations, and more. Topics will include:

- Cyberinsurance
- General liability coverage
- Employment practices liability coverage
- Professional liability/errors and omissions liability coverage
- Directors and officers liability coverage
- Crime/fidelity coverage
- First party property and business interruption coverage

We will also cover related issues, such as choice of counsel, getting defense costs paid in full, and dealing with reservations of rights and denials of coverage.

Presenters: Scott Godes of Barnes & Thornburg LLP and an in-house panelist.

When: Thursday, July 21, 2016

Time: Noon-2:00 p.m. (Eastern)

Lunch will be provided on-site starting at 12:00. The program/webcast will begin at 12:30 p.m.
