

Energetic and resourceful, Sonya McNeil is a seasoned paralegal assisting attorneys and clients on a range of litigation matters. Sonya offers a solid understanding of court processes and legal proceedings.

With over 10 years of experience, Sonya has a well-rounded skill set in legal research and honed talents in trial preparation.

Sonya assists the firm's attorneys with performing research and often establishing the case by interviewing witnesses, conducting investigations while collecting facts. She focuses on organizing evidence, pre-trial and trial preparation, as well as with drafting complaints, motions, notices, chronologies, discovery, and correspondence.

Sonya also helps with trial and deposition preparation, including but not limited to, creating deposition outlines, pre-trial conference orders, witness and exhibit lists, verdict forms, and jury instructions.

Prior to joining in the firm, Sonya served as a senior IP paralegal at an AmLaw 100 law firm.
