Stignani Appointed By Mayor To Minneapolis Commission For Civil Rights

February 17, 2021 | Minneapolis

Mark Stignani has been appointed by Minneapolis Mayor Jacob Frey to serve as a member of the Minneapolis Commission for Civil Rights. Mark will serve a multiyear term on the commission, ending in 2022.

The commission implements the city's civil rights policies through public information and education as stated in the Minneapolis Code of Ordinances. The primary objective of the commission is to promote and protect the civil rights of the people of Minneapolis.

All of its members are appointed either by the mayor or the Minneapolis City Council.

Stignani is a graduate of the University of Minnesota, where he earned a B.S. in robotics and artificial intelligence systems. He earned his J.D. from William Mitchell College of Law.

With more than 700 attorneys and other legal professionals, Barnes & Thornburg is one of the largest law firms in the country. The firm serves clients worldwide from offices in Atlanta, California, Chicago, Delaware, Indiana, Michigan, Minneapolis, New York, Ohio, Raleigh, Salt Lake City, Texas and Washington, D.C.
