

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

Michigan Chamber Environmental Issues Forum

DATE

May 21, 2019
9:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

LOCATION

Lansing (Michigan Chamber of Commerce)

SPEAKERS

Charles M.
Denton
Partner

Joel T. Bowers
Partner

Donald P.
Lawless
Partner

Tammy L.
Helminski
Partner

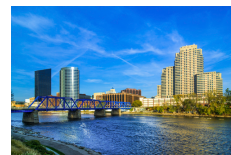

Charlie Denton of Barnes & Thornburg's Environmental Law group moderates this annual forum presented by the Michigan Chamber of Commerce, bringing together attorneys, government officials and top consultants to discuss the most current developments in Michigan's environmental arena.

- Denton will offer opening remarks, as well as a presentation on "No Stricter Than Federal' EH&S Applicability."
- Suzanne Sutherland of Barnes & Thornburg's Real Estate department will take part in a presentation on "Part 201 Cleanup Criteria and Brownfield Redevelopment Updates."
- Joel Bowers of Barnes & Thornburg's Environmental Law group will speak on "Air Emissions Permitting Compliance and Enforcement," including a status update on U.S. EPA Clean Air Act rules, Renewable Operating Permit/Tile 5 fees, and the

RELATED PRACTICE AREAS

Environmental
PFAS and Emerging Contaminants

RELATED OFFICES

Grand Rapids

P 616-742-3930
F 616-742-3999
ted.boersma@btlaw.com

Michigan Climate Change Office.

- Jeff Longworth of Barnes & Thornburg's Environmental Law group will take part in a presentation on "Stormwater Pollution Prevention and Permitting Issues."
- Don Lawless of Barnes & Thornburg's Labor and Employment Law group will give an update on federal and Michigan OSHA laws.
- Tammy Helminski of Barnes & Thornburg's Environmental Law group will offer regulatory updates from EGLE and U.S. EPA on PFAS emerging contaminants.

For a full schedule, registration and details on other presentations and speakers, please visit the Michigan Chamber of Commerce.