Rising Leaders Mentoring Program

January 25, 2018 | Chicago

Jonathan Froemel of the Chicago office recently became part of the Rising Leaders Mentoring Program for the US Business Leadership Network. The Rising Leaders Mentoring Program is a six-month career mentoring opportunity to 250 college students and recent graduates with disabilities through linkages to business professionals from partner companies. The program brings together employers and college students and recent graduates with disabilities, including veterans, to meet and interact with business professionals in their field of study or area of interest.
