

RELATED PRACTICE AREAS

Corporate
COVID-19 Resources

WEBINARS

Raising The Bar: Understanding How COVID-19 Will Affect Loan Defaults

DATE

December 16, 2020
10:30 a.m.-11:30 a.m.
(Central)

SPEAKERS

Connie A. Lahn
Partner

Andrea Cobery
Assistant General
Counsel
U.S. Bank

Violeta Zdravkovic
Managing Director
O'Keefe

While it is impossible to predict the future, economic forecasts point to default rates in 2021 and 2022 that will exceed those seen in 2008. Understanding the potential impact, and preparing your organization right now is of the utmost importance. The COVID-19 pandemic has provided unique challenges that will undoubtedly make this recovery effort different.

This webinar will be an interactive discussion of multiple perspectives regarding the current economic and loan default situation, speculate as to what the future holds, and provide practical advice for how to weather a period on economic uncertainty. There are many lessons from the past we can leverage.

In this webinar, the panel will discuss:

- What to expect in 2021: Perspectives of lawyers, bankers and financial advisers
- How to prepare your organization
- Lessons learned from previous economic downturns and what may be different this time

1.0 hour CLE credit pending.

Questions? Email Siara Reyes or call 317-231-7211.