Mary Sennes of the Minneapolis office moderated a panel of in-house attorneys from Target, 3M Company, Best Buy Co. Inc., McDonald's Corporation and Amazon Studios at the 2017 National Asian Pacific American Bar Association (NAPABA) Conference in Washington, D.C. on Nov. 2-5. The panel presentation focused on strategies and best practices for in-house counsel when dealing with clients in challenging situations. More than 2,100 Asian-Pacific law firm attorneys, in-house counsel, judges and law students attended the conference, along with Mary, Mark Kittaka of the Fort Wayne office, Anthony Son of the Minneapolis office and John Meyers of the Atlanta office. This is the sixth consecutive year the firm has been a sponsor of this conference.
