Sandra Ko: I Am Barnes & Thornburg

March 1, 2021 | Washington, D.C.

I AM...

- A big believer in having a plan but going with the flow
- A native of Los Angeles and a city girl all the way who finds my greatest peace in nature far outside of any city
- An avid international traveler who won't let lack of a travel partner stop me from going
- A huge fan of Cirque du Soleil, which I try to see any time I am in the same city as a show
- A mom to Wylie, a Shih Tzu rescue I met by chance 12 years ago
- An amateur cook who really enjoys entertaining at home
- All about pushing the limits of my comfort zone in all aspects of my life, but am totally okay with never overcoming my fear of snakes
- Fortunate to have had opportunities to study and work abroad at various times of my life
- Tone deaf, but a professional singer in the car
- A huge fan of home renovation TV because it features talents and skills I wish I had
