

RELATED PRACTICE AREAS

Labor and Employment
Litigation
Product Liability and Mass Torts

WEBINARS

Use Of Experts In Employment Litigation: A CLE Primer For In-House Counsel

DATE

October 16, 2020
12:30 p.m.-1:30 p.m.
(Eastern)

SPEAKERS

Kathleen M.
Anderson
Partner

John R. Maley
Partner

Many garden-variety employment claims do not need defense expert witnesses, but for high-stakes, big-dollar, and/or collective or class actions, experts should be seriously considered. Strategic deployment of effective experts – ranging from statisticians, forensic computer technologists and human resources professionals to handwriting experts, CPAs and psychiatrists – can be instrumental in winning cases or significantly reducing settlement values. Likewise, in prosecuting noncompete and trade secret claims against former employees, experts can make or break the case.

Spend an hour with two of our experienced trial lawyers who have deep experience using a broad array of experts. They will share practical insights on whether and when to use experts and the types of experts that add value in certain cases, and offer guidance on managing expert fees.

1.0 hour CLE credit pending. This program is valid for 1.0 PDCs for the SHRM-CP® or SHRM-SCP®.

Questions? Email Siara Reyes or call 317-231-7211.

