When you are running a closely held or family business, there are often too many day-to-day decisions with many potential outcomes to consider fully. This presentation will cover mistakes that often trip up closely held and family business owners, from formation to exit.

While there will be examples and stories of what not to do, we will also discuss suggestions to avoid the pitfalls and best practices to consider in managing the legal and governance aspects of the business.

1.0 hour CLE credit.
