

I AM BARNES & THORNBURG

SPOTLIGHTS

Amy Kintz: I Am Barnes & Thornburg

November 1, 2021 | South Bend

I AM...

- A single mom to three kids that I am honored to call mine and I really enjoy that role
- Someone who loves music of all kinds – I prefer listening to music over watching TV
- A reader. It's my favorite quiet time activity and historical fiction is my go-to.
- Someone who loves to write and tries to do a little bit of it every day. I dreamed about being a journalist when I grew up
- A person who enjoys traveling, seeing new places and experiencing new people. I hope to do a lot more of it.
- Incredibly blessed to have a tribe of phenomenal female friends and we have been a huge part of one another's lives (the good, the bad and the ugly) for nearly three decades
- A positive person who focuses on the good that exists in everything – even the not so pretty stuff
- Pretty quick-witted, with a great sense of humor. Love to laugh!
- Proud of the community in which I live and committed to doing what I can to have real impact, help those in need and effect some positive change
- Grateful for my rescue dog, Timmy (he came with that name). He is one of the best things we've ever done. Talk about unconditional love!

This profile appeared in the November 2021 edition of I Am Barnes & Thornburg.

View the full publication.