Milken Institute - “Future-Proofing The Videogame Industry In California”

February 13, 2018 | Atlanta

Stephen Weizenecker of the Atlanta office testified on Feb. 13 at a forum of California state legislators held at the California State Capitol in conjunction with the Milken Institute’s release of its report titled “Future-Proofing the Videogame Industry in California.” Stephen is cited as a reference in the report. Stephen offered his expert testimony on the successful but fragile state of the videogame industry in California and the competitive marketplace as states compete to attract this business.
