

Life Sciences Lunch – The World Is Your Market: Going Global From Indiana

March 18, 2014

BioCrossroads recently announced that Indiana ranks second in worldwide exports. That number is significant to Indiana's role in the global economy and speaks to the state's expertise in distribution and logistics. This month's panel will further explore the story behind those export numbers and give them context to Indiana's international engagement. Please join us as we discuss Indiana as a gateway to the world, explore the role of international partnerships and relationships, and touch on markets that make sense for Indiana life science firms.
