Intellectual Property Attorneys Recognized In IAM Strategy 300 Global Leaders Guide

September 8, 2022 | Minneapolis | Dallas

Jeff Stone and Scott Rothenberger, partners in the Minneapolis office, and Mark Nelson, a partner in the Dallas office, have been included in the 2022 IAM Strategy 300 Global Leaders guide for their work in intellectual property law. Each year, the guide calls upon the IAM Strategy 300 rankings to identify the individuals leading the way in the development and implementation of strategies that maximize the value of IP portfolios.

Stone focuses his practice on strategic patent counseling, patent prosecution, and portfolio development and Rothenberger, a scientist and lawyer, concentrates on patent prosecution, licensing and intellectual property litigation. Nelson is a patent litigator with three decades of experience.

The IAM Strategy 300 Global Leaders draws from the worlds of private practice, consulting and other service providers from the major IP markets in North America, Europe and Asia in IP-intensive sectors such as high-tech and life sciences.
