The Latest Immigration Law-related Changes and Updates

Changes to immigration rules and enforcement have been fast and furious over the past few years, and can be difficult to track and understand. This discussion will address various recent occurrences, as well as strategies for practical compliance in this rapidly changing area – which has serious consequences for mistakes and non-compliance.

2018 Employment Law Cases

It's been another busy year in employment law both in the courts and administrative agencies like the EEOC and NLRB. Anthony will bring attendees up to speed on the latest developments in this ever-changing field, and provide practical tips for compliance.

Big Picture Compliance and Its Nexus With HR and Individuals

A high-level discussion of how companies might assess their “big picture” compliance program, including natural HR linkages, and an exploration of the ways in which enforcement agencies are increasingly focusing on the misconduct, and prosecution, of individuals – not just companies.
