Consequences of Failing to Properly Complete the Form I-9

Presented by: Michael Palmer, Partner

It is important for employers to have a robust immigration compliance policy; not having one can lead to serious penalties. Hear about important immigration issues such as:

- The legal principles involved with immigration compliance;
- Step-by-step, detailed instructions for completing each section of the I-9; and
- Identifying common mistakes and how to avoid or correct them.

Is Your House in Order? What Every Employer Should Know About the Immigration Process

Presented by: Mercedes Badia-Tavis, Of Counsel

Hear from seasoned immigration lawyers about what an employer's legal responsibilities are regarding immigration and how to form a true partnership with your outside counsel. The discussion will cover best practices for effective internal management of the employment-based immigration process, potential pitfalls, and how to properly manage expectations.
