

Top Of Mind Seminar IP 2015: What's On The Horizon?

DATE

April 28, 2015

Join Barnes & Thornburg at its Top of Mind Intellectual Property breakfast briefing. An active Supreme Court term in 2014 resulted in a record number of precedential decisions spanning patent, trademark and copyright law. During our briefing, we will look ahead to 2015 and what is expected to be another year of change in intellectual property law.

The intellectual property topics are varied, but our discussion will include:

- Is the good faith belief that a patent is invalid a defense to induced infringement?
- Can a royalty agreement extend beyond the life of a patent?
- Is there any preclusive effect of a decision from the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board and, if so, to what extent?
- What happened to patent reform?
