MLive - "FAA's New Rules For Drones Has West Michigan Photographer Ready For Takeoff"

February 16, 2015 | Grand Rapids

Cliff Maine of the Grand Rapids office is quoted in an MLive article, "FAA's new rules for drones has West Michigan photographer ready for takeoff," which was published on Feb. 16. Cliff was quoted saying saying "the proposed rules are 'a very cautious step forward' by the FAA, which has banned all commercial uses of the remote-controlled helicopters."
