Barnes & Thornburg Named To Dallas Best Places To Work List

October 24, 2019 | Dallas

DALLAS – The Dallas office of Barnes & Thornburg LLP has been recognized by the Dallas Business Journal as a 2019 Best Places to Work.

The office, which moved to the PwC Tower at Park District last September, has experienced significant growth since opening its doors in 2015. Listed in the small company category, the firm currently has 42 attorneys and employees in Dallas.

“We continuously strive to be among the top workplaces in Dallas,” said Mark Bayer, Dallas office managing partner. “Being recognized on this list alongside other prominent organizations is further indicative of the culture that we have worked so hard to create. I’m very proud of the team here in Dallas, and of all of the people who helped make this recognition possible.”

The Dallas Business Journal, in conjunction with Quantum Workplace, has recognized organizations for 17 years. The 2019 list included nearly 100 employers.

The Dallas Business Journal honored all of the recipients at an awards event, and in a special feature publication in October.
