Indiana Supreme Court Commission On Race & Gender Fairness

July 24, 2015 | Fort Wayne

Dawn Rosemond of the Fort Wayne office was recently appointed to the Indiana Supreme Court Commission on Race & Gender Fairness. The Commission on Race and Gender Fairness studies the status of race and gender fairness in Indiana's justice system and investigates ways to improve race and gender fairness in the courts, legal system, among legal service providers, state and local government and among public organizations.
