Litigator and insurance recovery counsellor and advocate John Corbett focuses on meeting the insurance recovery needs of corporate policyholders in a wide variety of industries, including construction, transportation, telecommunications, and healthcare management. He fights for policyholders to ensure they get the full benefit of the coverage they purchased.

John represents policyholders both in the Dallas-Fort Worth region and across the country. He understands the strategies insurance companies use to avoid paying out benefits and how to get them to pay.

He offers years of experience generating recoveries under lines of insurance ranging from commercial general liability and cyber insurance to directors and officers (D&O) and professional errors and omissions (E&O) policies, among others.

Analytical, thorough and passionate about protecting his clients' rights, he works diligently to advocate on their behalf and, if necessary, through the litigation process, to get them the benefits they paid for.
