

High-Profile Infectious Diseases - Advance Planning For Hospitals And Providers

DATE

June 16, 2015

On June 16 and 17, the Healthcare department was a premier sponsor at the Indiana Rural Healthcare Association's (IRHA) Annual Conference in French Lick, IN. The conference had more than 500 attendees, in which Laura Seng and Mike Grubbs attended. Laura Seng of the South Bend office presented "High-Profile Infectious Diseases - Advance Planning for Hospitals and Providers." IRHA brings physicians, nurses, pharmacists, public health professionals, other rural health practitioners and advocates together with residents of rural communities.
