

Sofia Grünewald Brum advises clients on various corporate transactions and matters, including mergers and acquisitions, private equity, corporate formations, and corporate governance.

Sofia is a native of Brazil, where she began her legal career. Prior to joining the firm, Sofia was an associate at a Rio de Janeiro-based firm, where she was a member of the corporate, capital markets, and mergers and acquisitions practice groups. She provided legal advice on corporate matters to closely held and publicly held companies, and to investment funds.
