How The TV And Film Tax Credit Turned Georgia Into Hollywood Of The South

July 25, 2023 | Atlanta

Stephen Weizenecker was quoted in an Atlanta Journal-Constitution article, "How the TV & film tax credit turned Georgia into Hollywood of the South," regarding how the creation of a tax credit resulted in Georgia becoming the third-largest producer of film and TV in the country. Steve serves as vice chair of Georgia Gov. Brian Kemp's Film, Television, Music and Interactive Entertainment Advisory Commission and serves on the Film Tax Credit Advisory Commission of the Georgia Department of Revenue.
