Mergers and Acquisitions

David regularly advises both public and private companies on M&A transactions in a variety of industries, including banking and financial institutions, broker-dealers, investment advisers, and other financial services, manufacturing, consumer retail and apparel, engineering, and software and technology.

Banking and Financial Institutions

David regularly represents banks, thrifts, bank holding companies, financial holding companies, and savings and loan holding companies in mergers and acquisitions (on both the buy and sell side), asset sales, securities offering and regulatory matters, and state and federal bank regulatory and compliance matters.

Investment Advisers and Broker-Dealers

An integral part of David's practice involves advising clients on a wide-range of investment adviser and broker-dealer registration and regulatory issues. This includes advising clients on federal and state registration and compliance issues; FINRA membership matters; commodity trading advisor and commodity pool operator regulation; change in control issues and mergers and acquisitions involving investment adviser and broker-dealer firms; broker-dealer and investment adviser compensation arrangements; developing and refining supervisory procedures and compliance programs for broker-dealer and investment advisory firms; and advising issuers and financial market participants with respect to finders and business-broker relationships.

Private Investment Funds

David regularly represents private investment funds and fund sponsors in structuring, negotiating, and forming private equity, venture capital, real estate, and hedge funds, as well as commodity pools. David advises clients regarding the planning and structuring of pooled investment vehicles, regulatory compliance, and related registration matters. He assists fund sponsors in preparing all the documentation necessary for a fund formation, including the offering memorandum, limited partnership agreement and/or operating agreement, subscription documents, investment advisory agreement, custodial and prime brokerage agreements, administrator agreement, and other back-office agreements.
