

Jennifer Navarro is an enthusiastic and project-oriented paralegal offering almost 20 years of experience in Medicaid services. Jennifer utilizes her strong attention to detail to improve workplace productivity, efficiency and performance.

Jennifer performs Medicaid phone interviews with Family Social Services Administration caseworkers to review all asset documentation for clients.

Valued for her confidentiality and empathy, Jennifer showcases her proven client skills when interacting with clients to gather the proper assets and personal information needed to complete the Medicaid application process.

In addition to her responsibilities as a paralegal, Jennifer is a notary public, which can be of help to firm colleagues and clients alike.

At Barnes & Thornburg, Jennifer also has experience as a Medicaid Specialist. Prior to joining the firm, she worked at a Fort Wayne-based law firm on Medicaid matters.
