I AM...

- A mom to a miracle baby who almost did not make it into this world
- Striving to be beyond my insecurities
- Funny, or at least I think I am – I may be getting pity laughs
- A Disney fanatic – Disney World is my ultimate happy place
- A Black woman who in the past has not celebrated it
- Always happy to help
- Never satisfied until I solve a problem or win an argument, you can ask my husband
- A wife who is incredibly proud to be married to a first-generation immigrant from Mexico
- The first in my family to go to college
- A singer. I gave up a full scholarship to the music program at Western Michigan University to pursue environmental science and become a lawyer.
