

The Moving Target Of Affirmative Action Compliance

DATE

December 1, 2015

Janilyn Daub of the South Bend/Elkhart office presented her annual affirmative action update, "The Moving Target of Affirmative Action Compliance," on Dec. 1. More than 200 clients and potential client representatives registered for the webinar. The target audience was in-house counsel and human resource professionals working for companies having service or supply contracts/subcontracts with the federal government.
