

Recent NLRB Memo Identifies “Hot Topic” Cases For 2012

January 4, 2012 | | Labor And Employment

The NLRB recently circulated a memorandum asking all Regional Directors, Officers-in-Charge and Residential Officers to begin tracking what the Agency has defined as “Hot Topic” Cases. The categories include:

- Cessation of Dues Check-Off;
- Information Requests for Financial Records;
- Post Arbitration Deferral;
- Social Media; and
- Use of Employer e-Mail.

The memorandum provides insight into the types of issues likely to grab the NLRB’s attention in 2012. The memorandum can be accessed here.

RELATED PRACTICE AREAS

Labor and Employment
Labor Relations