Barnes & Thornburg Attorneys Recognized As 'Up And Coming Lawyers' By Indiana Lawyer

March 23, 2016 | Fort Wayne | Indianapolis

Adam L. Bartrom of the Fort Wayne office and Jennifer Tudor Wright of the Indianapolis office have been named 2016 "Up and Coming Lawyers" based on their commitment to the law, their peers and the legal community. They are two of only 15 lawyers in the state recognized as "Up and Coming" by the Indiana Lawyer's annual Leadership in Law awards. They will be honored at a May 10 reception.

Bartrom, is a partner and a member of the firm's Labor and Employment Law Department, collaborates with businesses to handle disputes and to create preventive strategies of all sizes. He dedicates his practice to representing management interests on the employment and traditional labor fronts. Bartrom routinely represents employers in state and federal courts and administrative agencies. He also helps clients with labor strategies and a full range of matters associated with organized workforces.

Bartrom graduated summa cum laude from Saint Joseph's College with a degree in political science and earned his J.D. from Notre Dame Law School.

Jennifer Tudor Wright is an associate and a member of the firm's Litigation Department and the Drug and Medical Device, eDiscovery, Data and Document Management, and Commercial Litigation practice groups. She has experience in a wide variety of commercial litigation, including products liability, medical device litigation, employment and contract disputes, school law, antitrust actions, creditor's rights, premises liability and copyright and trademark infringement.

Wright earned her J.D., cum laude, from the Robert H. McKinney School of Law. She earned her bachelor's degree with high distinction from Indiana University, Bloomington.

The Indiana Lawyer established the Leadership in Law awards in 2006 as a way to honor outstanding lawyers who have shown a commitment to their peers, clients and the Indiana legal community.

With more than 600 attorneys and other legal professionals, Barnes & Thornburg is one of the largest law firms in the country. The firm serves clients worldwide from 13 offices in Atlanta, Chicago, Dallas, Delaware, Indiana, Los Angeles, Michigan, Minneapolis, Ohio, and Washington, D.C.
