

Creative, passionate, and persuasive, Daniel Thompson leans into his ability to learn all he can about his clients and their businesses – particularly in the areas of commercial, product liability, and toxic tort litigation – to best address their needs.

Daniel strives to make a difference by not only understanding what his clients do but how the issues that arise can impact their bottom line. He cultivates resolution and litigation strategies with their current and future interests as the focal point.

During law school, Daniel gained legal experience as a summer associate in the firm's Indianapolis office and as a judicial extern for the Honorable Tim A. Baker of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Indiana.

In his free time, Daniel enjoys cooking, gardening, mixology, and woodworking.
