Savoy Magazine Names Alan Mills To 2015 Most Influential Black Lawyers List

March 12, 2015 | Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS – The spring issue of Savoy Magazine will include Barnes & Thornburg partner Alan Mills as part of its 2015 Most Influential Black Lawyers list. Mills, a partner in Barnes & Thornburg's Indianapolis office, concentrates his practice on transactional, complex commercial litigation and bankruptcy matters, representing financial institutions, special servicers, equity and hedge funds, and secured creditors.

Mills is a member of the firm's Finance, Insolvency and Restructuring and Litigation departments and is chair of the firm's Special Servicer Team. Mills formerly served on the firm's management, recruiting, and client relations committees, where he helped develop the firm's diversity goals.

Savoy Magazine's listing is comprised of the "best of the best" of Black lawyers who are partners within leading national law firms or corporate counsel from Fortune 1000 corporations. Savoy Magazine is a national publication covering the power, substance and style of African-American lifestyle. From entertainment to sports, business to politics, design to style, Savoy is a cultural catalyst for the African-American community that showcases and drives positive dialogue on and about black culture. Savoy is published quarterly and distributed via subscriptions and newsstands worldwide.

With more than 600 attorneys and other legal professionals, Barnes & Thornburg is one of the largest law firms in the country. The firm serves clients worldwide from 12 offices in Atlanta, Chicago, Delaware, Indiana, Los Angeles, Michigan, Minneapolis, Ohio, and Washington, D.C.
